To benefit the Northwest Region of the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation

Mark your calendars for the Northwest Chapter's Annual Award Luncheon to be held, Tuesday, April 27, 2010 at Seattle's Hyatt at Olive 8. The event will raise critical funds for the Northwest's Camp Oasis program as well as help fund IBD research working towards a cure for Crohn's Disease and ulcerative colitis.

Featured at this year's luncheon will be local mountain climber, Susan Ershler, who along with her husband and Crohn's patient Phil, were the first couple to successfully climb the Seven Summits, the highest peak on each of the world's seven continents. In addition to climbing, Susan travels the world sharing their inspiring life journey.

Joining Susan Ershler will be Dr. Tim Zisman, local gastroenterologist at the University of Washington. Dr. Zisman joined the UW in 2009 after completing his fellowship at the University of Chicago and will present on the current state of inflammatory bowel disease.
